

audioconnection

sound and vision

Audio connection due to its expansion is looking for highly motivated and passionate candidates who are results orientated in sales and the custom design of home audio/visual solutions.

The ideal candidate will be energetic and self driven with a minimum two years experience in the Audio Visual industry or similar.

Should be a team player, excellent product knowledge, communication and networking skills are essential.

This is a great opportunity for persons to work with a growing and established company, within retail sales environment and custom installations.

Please submit your CV and a short cover letter to careers@audioconnection.com.au.

